Madam,

We are in receipt of your letter of the 16th ult. and regret to inform you that Norges Bank can not trace to have any documents relating to the origin of the Viotti Guarnerius violin.

We have contacted the son of the late Mr. Einar Björnson, dr. ing. Björn Björnson, c/o Norsk Fjærfabrikk A/S, Göteborggt. 23, Oslo, who told us that neither he, nor his sister, had any knowledge of the existence of the documents.

Mr. Björn Björnson promised, however, to send them to you in case they should be found amongst his father's effects left.

Yours faithfully,

NORGES BANK

Madam,

We are in receipt of your letter of the 14th ult. and regret to inform you that Norges Bank can not trace to have any documents relating to the origin of the Viotti Garnerius violin.

We have contacted the son of the late Mr. Rinar Björnson, dr. ing. Björn Björnson, c/o Norsk Tjærlabnik A/S, Göteborgst. 23, Oslo, who told us that neither he, nor his sister, had any knowledge of the existence of the documents. Mr. Björn Björnson promised, however, to send them to you in case they should be found amongst his father's effects left.

Yours faithfully,

NORGES BANK
